My dear Sir

As to matters of account I am obliged to rely on my friend: they can all see how money matters stand by the figures in pencil marked in the books. You must keep me straight, & that is all I want.

I thank you for your additional trust to me in a P. O. Order for £1.

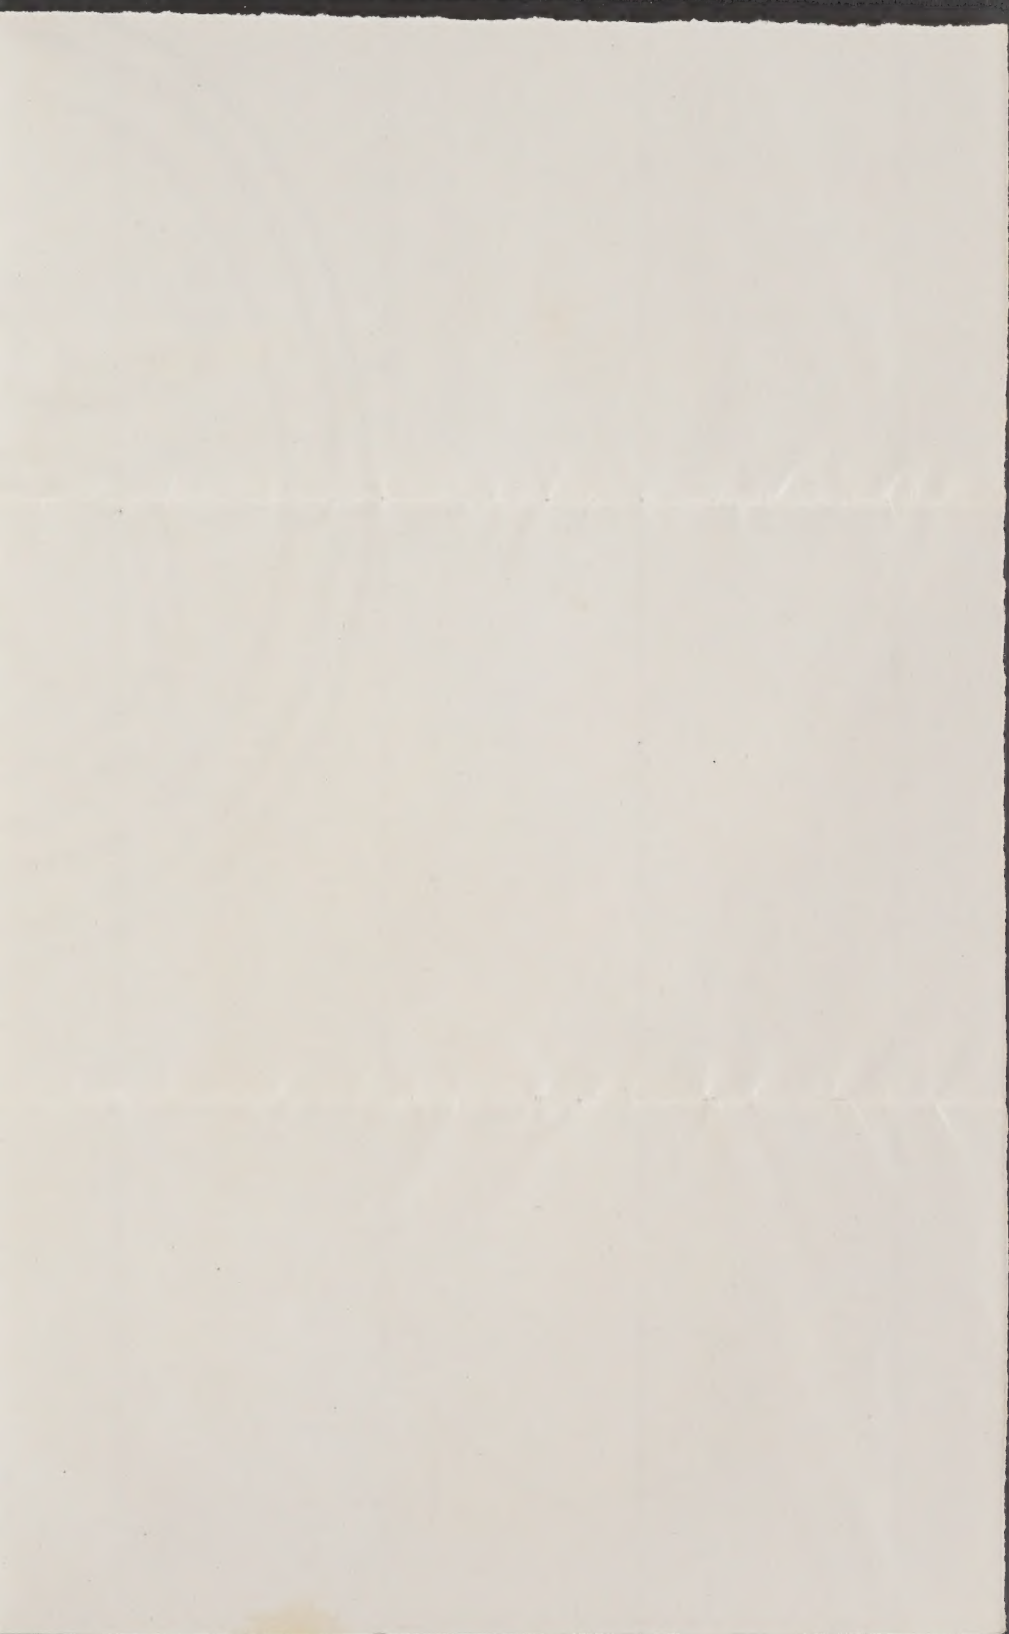

Yours very sincerely

My dear Sir

22nd Nov 1891

I have just received your letter of the 19th inst. in relation to the matter of the 18th inst. and am glad to hear that you are so much interested in the subject. I have been thinking of writing you for some time but have been so busy that I have not had time. I am now in the city and will be able to see you on Monday next. I will be at the office at 10 o'clock. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours truly,
